

Jennifer Dinwoodie BA (Hons) Arch, BA (Hons) Interiors
Assistant Lighting Designer

Jennifer studied both Architecture and Interior Design at the University of Newcastle-upon-Tyne and Edinburgh College of Art where she achieved First Class Honours. During her degrees she won various speculative competitions and her final interior degree show won the John L Paterson Award. During her studies architectural lighting became a key theme in her portfolio.

After graduating in 2008 Jennifer joined Speirs and Major Associates as an Assistant Lighting Designer, where she has worked on projects such as the Shenzhen Bo'an International Airport in China and the renovation of the Unione Militaire Building for United Colours of Benetton in Rome.

Jennifer has a keen interest in art and enjoys painting in her spare time.
