

Rose Richardson BA(Hons)
Lighting Visualiser

Rose Richardson studied Interior Design at the Middlesex University. She joined Speirs and Major Associates in 2004 and went on to study for her LiF certificate in 2006.

Whilst working as an Assistant Lighting Designer Rose has worked on a large variety of projects including One New Change, London, Maggie's Centre, South Entrance Hall at the British Museum and the Conran Restaurant at the Royal Festival Hall.

In November 2007 Rose realised her current role as Lighting Visualiser. Her key interest is the visualisation of lighting design interpreted using many techniques including 3D renders, sketches and plans.

Rose is a keen musician and regularly plays for several orchestras based in London. Additionally, in her spare time Rose is a part time youth worker in her local community.
